

Day 1, 14th Nov: What social innovation is, why it matters and what theories should help us to understand it

Time	Session	Speakers	Room	Chair
8.30 – 9.00	Registration		Lobby
9.00 – 9.15	Welcome	Mark Anderson & Laura Bunt	Plenary
Part 1		Defining the scope of the field
9.15 – 10.15	Keynote: The past and future of social innovation research	Frances Westley - The history of social innovation Geoff Mulgan - Setting a future research agenda for social innovation Discussion	Plenary	Josef Hochgerner
10.15 – 11.00	Mapping the field of social innovation	Participatory session led by Julie Simon, Laura Bunt and Anna Davies	Breakout space
11.00 – 11.30	Break		Lobby
Part 2		Why social innovation matters now
11.30 – 12.30	Social Innovation: reconfiguring markets and forging new state-society relations?	Jane Jenson, ‘Social innovation. Redesigning the welfare diamond’ Adalbert Evers & Benjamin Ewert, ‘Social innovation and social cohesion: findings on commonalities of innovation from a new transnational study’ Carla Cipolla, Patricia Melo and Ezio Manzini, ‘Collaborative services in informal settlements: a social innovation case in a pacified favela in Rio de Janeiro’ Discussion	Plenary	Maria-Elisa Bernal
12.30 – 1.30	Lunch
Part 3		Social innovation and social change
1.30 – 2.30	Keynote: The task of the social innovation movement	Roberto Mangabeira Unger in conversation with Geoff Mulgan	Plenary	Geoff Mulgan
2.30 – 2.45	Break		Lobby

Part 4		Analysing the dynamics of social innovation
2.45 – 4.00	WORKSHOP A: What resources, cultures and behaviours are useful in supporting social innovation?	Björn Schmitz & Gunnar Glänzel, ‘Resourcing social innovation in Germany – an empirically based concept of matching social innovators with social investors’ Lina Sonne, ‘The usefulness of networks: a study of social innovation in India’ Warren Nilsson & Tana Paddock, ‘Inscaping: Exploring the connection between experiential surfacing and social innovation’ Discussion	Breakout space	Alex Nicholls
	WORKSHOP B: What is the link between social innovation, systemic change and societal transformation?	Jürgen Howaldt, Ralf Kopp & Michael Schwarz, ‘Social innovations as drivers of social change - Tarde’s disregarded contribution to social innovation theory building’ Nino Antadze & Frances Westley, ‘When scaling out is not enough: strategies for system change’ Alex Haxeltine, Julia Wittmayer & Flor Avelino, ‘Transformative social innovations: a sustainability transition perspective on social innovation’ Discussion	Breakout space	Robin Murray
2.45 – 4.05	WORKSHOP C: How to (and why) engage citizens in social innovation?	Sunkyung Han, Jungwon Kim, So Jung Rim & Ah Young Park, ‘Seoul City’s social innovation strategy: a model of multi-channel communication to strengthen governance and citizen engagement’ Daria Cantù & Daniela Selloni, ‘From engaging to empowering people: a set of co-design experiments with a service design perspective’ and Anna Meroni, Davide Fassi and Giulia Simeone, ‘Design for social innovation as a form of designing activism’ Yanki Lee, Denny Ho and Albert Tsang ‘Design for the ingenuity of ageing: new roles of designers in democratic innovation’ Discussion	Breakout space	Antonella Noya
4.00 – 4.30	Break
4.30 – 5.00	Reflections and wrap up	Reflections from Kippy Joseph	Plenary	Laura Bunt
5.00	Close
6.30 – 9.30	Evening programme: Drinks & dinner	Guest speaker – Mariana Mazzucato ‘The (socially) entrepreneurial state?’	Bishops gate Institute	Simon Willis

Day 2, 15th Nov: How to support social innovation as part of the 'second economy' in practice, in policy and through future research

Time	Session	Speakers	Room	Chair
8.30 – 9.00	Registration		Lobby
9.00 – 9.15	Welcome	Mark Anderson	Plenary
Part 5		Governments' role in social innovation
9.15 – 10.30	What can Governments do to support social innovation?	Joanne McNeill, 'Enabling social innovation - opportunities for sustainable local and regional development' Nazly Frias, Marcela Lozano & Santiago Aparicio Velasquez, 'Barriers and incentives for social innovation in Colombia. Towards the construction of a public policy' Phillip Colligan, 'Lessons from the UK: what does a favourable policy context for social innovation look like?' Discussion	Plenary	Agnès Hubert
10.30 – 11.00	Break		Lobby
Part 6		Social innovation and the 'second economy' – distributed, digital and micro-production
11.00 – 12.00	Parallel Workshop A: the myth of the 'heroic innovator'? Collaboration, competition and the public sector	Jacob Torfing and Eva Sørensen, 'Enhancing social innovation by rethinking collaboration, leadership and public governance' Fergus Lyon, Leandro Sepulveda & Ian Vickers, 'Process of social innovation in mutual organisations: The case of social enterprises leaving the public sector' Discussion	Breakout space	Karen Miller
	Parallel Workshop B: Are there limits to collective intelligence?	Ola Tjørnbo, 'The potential of mass collaboration to produce social innovation' Mónica Edwards-Schachter and Svenja Tams, 'How empowering is social innovation? Identifying barriers to participation in community driven innovation' Discussion	Breakout space	Francesca Bria

11.00 – 12.15	Parallel Workshop C: Distributed local economies and the new place-making	Stefano Maffei & Massimo Bianchini, 'Micro-production everywhere. Social, local, open and connected manufacturing' Serena Vicari, and Michela Sempredon, 'Self-building and the involvement of immigrant communities: innovative processes and practices at a time of crisis and beyond' Nicola Bacon & Saffron Woodcraft, 'Innovating Places: a new role for 'Place Difference'' Discussion	Breakout space	Giulio Ecchia
12.30 – 1.30	Lunch
Part 7		Towards a new research agenda
1.30 – 3.00	Parallel Workshop A: How do we research social innovation?	Kyriaki Papageorgiou, 'Healing nature, transforming culture: a story of social innovation in Egypt' Marie-J. Bouchard and Catherine Trudelle, 'Exploring the conceptual universe of social innovation: a relational database for a better understanding of its effects on social transformation' Katherine McGowan and Frances Westley, 'At root of change: the history of social innovation' Anna Kaderabkova and Saeed Moghadam Saman, 'Evaluation of social innovations – Their characteristics and impacts, cross country comparisons and implications for policy support' Discussion	Breakout space	Jonathan Breckon
		Julie Simon, TEPSIE Chris Hawker, INNOSERV Taco Brandsen, WILCO Francesca Bria, DSI Discussion	Breakout space	Jeremy Millard
3.00 – 3.15	Break
3.15 – 4.00	Setting a Future Research Agenda	Participatory session led by Laura Bunt and Anna Davies	Plenary
4.00 – 4.30	Wrap up and thanks	Robin Murray, Giulio Ecchia, Jo Casebourne and Mark Anderson	Plenary
4.30 – 5.30	Drinks
5.30	Close			